

LET'S FINISH SOME UFOS!

WHAT'S A
UFO?

UNFINISHED OBJECT

COMMON REASONS A PROJECT BECOMES A UFO

- Pattern Problems
- Technique Problems
- Fabric Issues
- Not Like Your Original Vision
- You Got Distracted by Another Project
- You're Dreading the Next Step

WHAT SHOULD YOU DO WITH THAT UFO?

HOW CAN YOU REVIVE A UFO PROJECT?

- Break the project down into smaller, more reasonable tasks
- Commit to working on it
- Make yourself accountable
- Keep it accessible!

KEEPING IT ORGANIZED

- Make a list and track your progress
 - Break down the project into different steps
- Keep the projects separate and easy to grab

Plastic storage containers for scrapbooking are perfect for storing UFOs.

Laura L. uses bins, zippered plastic bags, and hangers to keep her UFOs organized and easy to grab.

Complete this sheet and submit it to Tracy
BY DECEMBER 6

- Email to tracy.buckley@live.com
- Give Tracy the paper copy
- Submit your list at bouldermqg.com/UFO

HOW DOES IT WORK?

- December 6 the first number will be drawn. This number will correspond to the projects on your sheet.
- Over the next two months you will work on your project.
- During the months of February, April, June, August, October, and December bring your completed project for a chance to win small prizes.
- For each project complete throughout the year (on time or not) you'll get an entry into an end of the year grand prize basket.
- Write a blog post about your finished UFO for an extra entry!
