MQG Call for Submissions

The Modern Quilt Guild has a number of calls for submissions. Sign up for our designer email list so you never miss a call for submissions again.

Content	Description
Quilts	Submissions are now open for a special exhibition of modern quilts created by MQG members living in Europe. This juried exhibition will be on display at Pour l'Amour du Fil in Nantes, France in April 2020. Submissions are open to MQG members residing in Europe only. Learn more and submit here.
Quilt & Block Designs	We're looking for intermediate to advanced quilt patterns with a mix of traditional piecing and foundation paper piecing designs. We will supply fabric and batting through our sponsors. Throw and twin size quilts preferred, but pattern can include multiple sizes. Email us to submit a design. We are also seeking designs for the MQG Block Study program. Your block design would be turned into a pattern and used as the foundation of two quilts, which will be made by sample sewists. Email us to submit a design.
QuiltCon workshops & lectures	We are actively looking for fantastic teachers to teach hands-on workshops and to give amazing lectures at QuiltCon 2021, in Atlanta, GA. Learn more here.
Webinars	We're seeking a mix of webinar topics in both lecture and tutorial styles. Email us to submit an idea.

Note: Another user can take over a hashtag.

Follow a Hashtag

You can follow a specific hashtag if you don't want to follow an account. Or if you want to see things posted to the hashtag show up on your feed.

One example of a hashtag to follow is #bouldermqgcolorstudy19 because you want to see everyone's blocks but not necessarily follow all participating accounts.
